Issue is taken with a recent survey of immigrant farmers in Connecticut which asserted that the Jewish farmer was of no material benefit to Connecticut in that it introduced no new crops or methods, by Leonard G. Robinson, general manager of the Jewish Agricultural and Industrial Aid society.

The reduced express rates which went into effect Feb. 1 are said to be resulting in increased business. The gain is small, it is expected to be larger when business improves. Considerable new business will have to be secured to make up the deficiency in revenue caused by the reduction in rates.

LYMAN VIADUCT FILL

Part of Improvement on Air Line.
A despatch from Portland, Conn., says:

Improvements on the Air Line division of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, between New Haven and Willimantic, will be pushed forward so that some express trains now running between New York and Boston by way of Springfield may be routed in the summer time.

Construction gangs have been making big fills at Lyman Viaduct and changing grades. Saturday a third work train was sent to Portland and another with a steam shovel will come this week.

In charge of the work have orders to finish work by June 1. It is stated that the use of the Air Line for express trains will be due to the fact that the New Haven road will terminate its lease of the Boston and Albany road.

Obituary.

Mrs. Octave Sautier.

Georgianna Sautier, wife of Octave Sautier, died rather suddenly at her home in Unassville Sunday about noon.

She was 68 years of age and had been ill for some time. She was a devoted mother and a kind and generous hearted woman. During the evening she was seized with a sudden illness and had to be removed to her home. Her condition rapidly grew worse, death coming on Sunday. Besides her husband she leaves three sons, Peter, Joseph and Octave Sautier.

There are also three sisters, two of whom reside in Canada. Mrs. Sautier was 59 years of age.

Ole Erickson.

About 8 o'clock Saturday morning Ole Erickson died in this city, and the remains were taken in charge by Underwood Bros. He had been seriously ill for the past three weeks. He was 44 years of age and a native of Norway, coming to this country and first located in Worcester 27 years ago.

In the summer of 1901 he came to Norwich and had since resided here, making his home on the road from Fox Hill and Hallville on the East Side. He was employed at the factory of the United Arms company for years and six months ago he was married in Fitchburg, Mass., and his wife survives him. He is also survived by two daughters. Two sisters are in Norway, and two nieces, Mrs. Andrew Swanberg and Miss Emma Emilia Johnson, both of this city.

Michael Kelly.

Norwich relatives have been informed of the death of Michael Kelly on Feb. 1 at Poplar, Mont., at the age of 76. He was a brother of the late Timothy Kelly and was well known in this city, where he lived in the old Dr.
Mason place on Laura Hill, now altered into the office of the Thompson company.

The two brothers, Timothy and Michael, owned the firm of Kelly Brothers in 1870, erecting the building on North Main street where they did business. Michael died on the road after three or four years. After the death of Timothy Kelly the property was sold and the proceeds were divided between the two brothers.

Michael Kelly was a soldier in the Civil war. He fought in the west through his land holdings and was 76 years old at the time of his death. Before going west he was in the south for a number of years and was a police man in Savannah.

The two brothers both fought in the Civil war. Michael in the southern army and Timothy in the northern army, the regiments in which they were engaged being on the opposing sides in the battle of Seven Pines. Michael Kelly was wounded and lost two ribs in his army service.

He is survived by two sons and three daughters in the west and leaves a sister, Mrs. Michael Kelly, in this city, and a brother, Patrick Kelly, in Iowa.

Mrs. Bernard W. Pierce.

Esther A. Pierce, widow of Bernard W. Pierce, who for a number of years past resided with her daughter, Mrs.
John A. Bowen, died at 11 o'clock Saturday morning at her home on Anthony's church, Bridgeport, and a personal friend of the family celebrating the funeral at the residence of Mrs.
Savage, Main street, on Sunday.

In the large attendance were friends from Bridgeport, Meriden, Danbury, Hartford, Willimantic and Worcester, Plainfield and White Plains, N. Y.

The floral offerings were in numbers. "Nellie" from the family, pillow, Mr. and Mrs. M. Lee; spray of

SEND PETITION OVER ROAD

Several Hundred Men Ask State Highway Commissioner to Give Attention to Section of Salem Turnpike in Mont-ville—Want Trunk Line Money Spent There.

On Saturday a big petition of several hundred names, which have been secured in the past few weeks, was forwarded to State Highway Commissioner C. J. Bennett asking for some state money to be expended upon section of the Salem turnpike which is particularly in need of attention to make it measure up to parts of the road on both sides of it. The petition has been circulated by Merton Swan and other residents in the neighborhood, and besides the farmers in that section has recently received the signatures of a large number of Norwich business men and residents who have had experience in traveling this piece of road, summer and winter.

There are up-to-date road conditions are particularly sought by the signers of the petition is on about three miles of road which is in the town of Mont-ville. The road is in such a state that never gets any adequate attention from the town of Montville in the way of repairs, as it is off in one corner of the town and is but little used by the townpeople, although largely traveled by automobiles and others on the way to Gardner Lake and also on the way to the new East Haddam bridge across the Connecticut. This particular section begins at what is known as the big hill and extends three miles from there, and the whole tract upon which the petitioners ask some of the state's money to be spent extends as far as the Salem church. The town of Norwich has done good road work of example of a noble work yielding to the town of Boscawen on the other, but the piece in between is described as a dust-bed in summer and a mud-hole in winter.

Petitions on the same piece of road have been sent to the state highway commissioner without result, but the Norwich signers feel that they have a right to ask for more money to be expended on this piece of road, as this town was doing good road building before state trunk line money was available.

Former Army Sergeant
HEARD AT Y. M. C. A.

F. E. Stevens Addresses Two Largely Attended Meetings.

A large number of men attended the men's meeting Sunday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. at 3:30 o'clock. F. E.
Stevens, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., was the speaker, reading a scripture from the old testament, Psalms 124, verses, and in his talk likening the fall of so many young men to that of the ancient king Belshazzar. He told of his own experiences in the army and later as a secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and out of the richness of the scriptures, he drew some of the language something of the real battle of life, often illustrating his point by example of a noble work yielding to the throes of sin. Selections from the Victrola were heard, which added very much to the meeting.

Spoke to Boys.

Before the men's meeting Sergeant Stevens addressed the largest boys' meeting of the Y. M. C. A. has had for some time. He chose for his subject "A Soldier's Life," and spoke in a very interesting way. He told the boys stories of his own experiences in life and of the hardships which he had endured.

ing at Norwich Town Church.

One of the most interesting gatherings in the chapel of the First Congregational church as to the number present and enthusiasm shown was that of Saturday afternoon when the Junior Christian Endeavor rally was held. Devotional exercises included a song, a prayer, and a reading of Christ's Command, sung by children's sweet voices.

Address by Miss Newcomb.

Miss Clara Newcomb of New London, young people's secretary of the Eastern Connecticut Branch of the W.
B. F. M., gave an address, saying in part that the world is a very interesting place. He told the boys stories of his own experiences in life
and of the hardships which he had endured.
